

Here are some best practices for document collaboration in Notion to maximize team productivity and organization:

Centralize Information

Use Notion as a single source of truth by storing all important documents, meeting notes, project plans, and resources in a shared workspace accessible to the team.

Utilize Templates and Standard Structures

Create or use Notion templates to standardize document formats and workflows, ensuring consistency and easier writing and reviewing across team members